Determination

Once I saw a boy trying to ride a bicycle. He was practically stubborn in his attempts at learning the bicycle. He fell; he was wounded, yet never gave up. I observed him from far away, and I was impressed by his repeated attempts at riding the bicycle. Well, I thought this is a tough guy, will certainly persevere in everything he would do in future.

The Prayer

It was the regular custom for a Rabbi to teach his disciples a simple prayer which they might habitually use. John had done that for his disciples, and now Jesus' disciples came asking him to do the same for them. This is Luke's version of the Lord's Prayer. It is shorter than Matthew's, but it will teach us all we need to know about how to pray and what to pray for.

Ø It begins by calling God Father. That was the characteristic Christian address to God. (Galatians 4.6; Romans 8.15; 1 Peter 1.17). The very first word tells us that in prayer we are not coming to someone out of whom gifts have to be unwillingly extracted, but to a Father who delights to supply his children's needs.

Ø In Hebrew the name means much more than merely the name by which a person is called. The name means the whole character of the person as it is revealed and known to us. Psalm 9. 10 says, "Those who know thy name put their trust in thee." That means far more than knowing that God's name is Jehovah. It means that those who know the whole character and mind and heart of God will gladly put their trust in him.

Ø We must note particularly the order of the Lord's Prayer. Before anything is asked for ourselves, God and his glory, and the reverence due to him, come first. Only when we give God his place will other things take their proper place.

The prayer covers all life: 1) It covers present need. It tells us to pray for our daily bread; but it is bread for the day for which we pray. This goes back to the old story of the manna in the wilderness (Exodus 16. 11-21). Only enough for the needs of the day might be gathered. We are not to worry about the unknown future, but to live a day at a time. 2) It covers past sin. When we pray we cannot do other than pray for forgiveness, for the best of us is a sinful man coming before the purity of God. 3) It covers future trials. Temptation means any testing situation. It includes far more than the mere seduction to sin; it covers every situation which is a challenge to and a test of a person's manhood and integrity and fidelity. We cannot escape it, but we can meet it with God.

Someone has said that the Lord's Prayer has two great uses in our private prayers. If we use it at the beginning of our devotions it awakens all kinds of holy desires which lead us on into the right pathways of prayer. If we use it at the end of our devotions it sums up all we ought to pray for in the presence of God.

Helpful Incident

Some years ago, three brothers left the farm to work in the city. They were all hired by the same company at the same pay. Three years later, Jim was being paid Rs. 5000 a month, Frank was receiving Rs. 10000, but George was now making 15000.

Their father decided to visit the employer. He listened to the confused father and said, "I will let the boys explain for themselves."

Jim was summoned to the supervisor's office and was told, "Jim, I understand the Far East Importers has just brought in a large transport plane loaded with Japanese import goods. Will you please go over to the airport and get a cargo inventory?"

Three minutes later, Jim returned to the office. "The cargo was one thousand bolts of Japanese silk," Jim reported. "I got the information over the telephone from a member of the crew." When Jim left, Frank, the Rs. 10000 a month brother, was called. "Frank," said the supervisor, "I wish you'd go out to the airport and get an inventory of the cargo plane which was just brought in by Far East Importers."

An hour later, Frank was back in the office with a list showing that the plane carried 1,000 bolts of Japanese silk, 500 transistor radios, and 1,000 hand-painted bamboo trays. George, the Rs. 15000 a month brother, was given identical instructions. Working hours were over when he finally returned. "The transport plane carried one thousand bolts of Japanese silk," he began. "It was on sale at 2500 Rupees a bolt, so I took a two-day option on the whole lot. I have wired a designer in New Delhi offering the silk at Rs. 3000/- a bolt. I expect to have the order tomorrow. I also found five hundred transistor radios, which I sold over the telephone at a profit of Rs. 150 each. There were a thousand bamboo trays, but they were of poor quality, so I didn't try to do anything with them."

When George left the office, the employer smiled. "You probably noticed," he said, "that Jim doesn't do what he's told, Frank does only what he'd told, but George does without being told."

The Second reading from the Colossians provokes us to have more faith in Christ. Faithfulness requires that we are filled with love for God and Christ. Christ's faithfulness is visible in all his activities, prayer and his relationship with God, man and nature. Faith is intensely a question of a life lived in union with God while engaging ourselves in our daily life.

Today's spiritual message for the 17th Sunday is that we should "persevere in our living faith." (Col. 2.6)

- Perseverance in our prayer
- Perseverance in our Work
- Perseverance in our daily relationship
- Perseverance in keeping up our health
- Perseverance in developing our talents
- Perseverance in keeping the Gospel Values in everything we do.

This lesson of perseverance is the need of the hour. The future is full of promise for one who shows perseverance.

God bless you!

100th Birthday of Jo Ringdahl

Last Sunday, July 17 at the 9:00 am Mass, Fr. Rudy presented the certificate of Papal Blessing from Pope Francis to Jo Ringdahl and her family– Sally, Rita, Beth and Carl. The celebration continued at the Rectory Hall with a 100 birthday cake, fellowship and more prayers from Fr. Rudy.

Jo and her family thank those who offered Masses here at Guardian Angels for her special intentions

On August 12, 2016, a Mass in her honour will be telecast on Vision TV and on www.SaltandLight.com Likewise, the whole family thanks in advance those who will be joining this celebration on-line.
