Stewardship Reflection

Christ the King Sunday November 21

All baptized people are called to be leaders in advancing Christ's Kingdom. This is our common vocation as disciples and stewards. How are you responding to this call? Christ our King was a shepherd, a steward, and a servant leader. We too, as good stewards of our vocations, must lead others to Christ in the same way, by lovingly and humbly serving one another.

Stewardship Office,
The Archdiocese of Winnipeg

Pastor's Corner -

34th Sunday In Ordinary Time

We are celebrating the Solemnity of Christ the King. I have a story to share, this may not be directly in line with the theme of today, but we can still get something out of it, as we are ending the liturgical year and beginning another one. The story goes ...

The first day of school our professor introduced himself and challenged us to get to know someone we didn't already know. I stood up to look around when a gentle hand touched my shoulder. I turned around to find a wrinkled, little old lady beaming up at me with a smile that lit up her entire being. She said, "Hi handsome. My name is Rose. I'm eighty-seven years old. Can I give you a hug?"

I laughed and enthusiastically responded, "Of course you may!" and she gave me a giant squeeze. "Why are you in college at such a young, innocent age?" I asked. She jokingly replied, "I'm here to meet a rich husband, get married, have a couple of children, and then retire and travel." "No seriously," I asked. I was curious what may have motivated her to be taking on this challenge at her age." "I always dreamed of having a college education and now I'm getting one!" she told me. After class we walked to the student union building and shared a chocolate milkshake. We became instant friends. Every day for the next three months we would leave class together and talk nonstop. I was always mesmerized, listening to this "time machine" as she shared her wisdom and experience with me. Over the course of the year, Rose became a campus icon and she easily made friends wherever she went. She loved to dress up and she reveled in the attention bestowed upon her from the other students. She was living it up. At the end of the semester, we invited Rose to speak at our football banquet. I'll never forget what she taught us.

She was introduced and stepped up to the podium. As she began to deliver her prepared speech, she dropped her three by five cards on the floor. Frustrated and a little embarrassed she leaned into the microphone and simply said, "I'm sorry I'm so jittery. I gave up beer for Lent and this whiskey is killing me! I'll never get my speech back in order so let me just tell you what I know."

As we laughed she cleared her throat and began:

"We do not stop playing because we are old; we grow old because we stop playing. There are only four secrets to staying young, being happy and achieving success."

You have to and find humor everyday. You've got to have a dream. When you lose your dreams, you die. We have so many people walking around who are dead and don't even know it!

There is a huge difference between growing older and growing up. If you are nineteen years old, lie in bed for one full year, and don't do one productive thing, you will turn twenty years old. If I am eighty-seven years old and stay in bed for a year and never do anything I will turn eighty-eight. Anybody can grow older. That doesn't take any talent or ability. The idea is to grow up by always finding the opportunity in change.

Have no regrets. The elderly usually don't have regrets for what we did, but rather for things, we did not do. The only people who fear death are those with regrets. She concluded her speech by courageously singing "The Rose." She challenged each of us to study the lyrics and live them out in our daily lives. At the year's end, Rose finished the college degree she had begun all those years ago. One week after graduation Rose died peacefully in her sleep. Over two thousand college students attended her funeral in tribute to the wonderful woman who taught by example that it's never too late to be all you can possibly be.

"Remember, growing older is mandatory, growing up is optional."

*God bless you,
Fr. Rudy*

LITANY OF HUMILITY

By Cardinal Merry del Val
(1865—1930)

O Jesus! Meek and humble of heart, Hear me.

From the desire of being esteemed,
Deliver me Jesus.

From the desire of being loved,
From the desire of being extolled....
From the desire of being honored...
From the desire of being praised...

From the desire of being preferred to others....

From the desire of being consulted....

From the desire of being approved..

From the fear of being humiliated...

From the fear of being despised....

From the fear of suffering rebukes...

From the fear of being calumniated....

From the fear of being forgotten....

From the fear of being ridiculed....

From the fear of being wronged...

From the fear of being suspected....

That others may be loved more than I,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be esteemed more than I....

That, in the opinion of the world, others
may increase and I may decrease....

That others may be chosen and I set aside...

That others may be praised and I unnoticed....

That others may be preferred to me in everything...

That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should....
