Sunday Envelopes 2011

- The boxes of Sunday Envelopes 2011 will be moved to the Rectory Basement by Friday, December 24.
- Important: Please do not start using those envelopes until January 1, 2011. Envelope nos. may have changed from the previous year. Be sure also to write your name and address on the first 3 envelopes you use to ensure a proper tax credit in your name.
- Donations for this year including Project Advance should be received by the parish office by December 31, 2010 to be tax deductible this year.

Advent season is a precious stretch of time of reflection, time for family, time for God and time of waiting.

Here in our Parish...

ADVENT

RECONCILIATION

The Advent Reconciliation service here in our parish is on Monday, December 20th at 6:00 pm. Three priests, Fr. Gordon Cook, (OMI); Fr. Christopher Antony, (HGN) and Fr. Rudy, will be here to hear Confessions. The Holy Mass will still be at 7:00 pm. If necessary, Confessions will resume after the 7 pm Mass.

CHRISTMAS FLOWERS & DECORATIONS

—Today, our Ushers will be passing the basket for your voluntary contribution towards flowers and decorations to make our Christmas celebrations beautiful and joyous!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

A reminder to everyone to please drop off their used stamps in our stamp collection box in the entry foyer.

All members are advised that our next general meeting will take place on January 6th, 2011 at the Millennium Hall at 7 pm.

Our best wishes to Fr. Rudy, Fr. Mario and all parishioners for a Merry Christmas! From: K of C

God With Us – Emmanuel – Sharing Life

We were meant to share our lives with each other, because life can be painful. We face too many fragile moments standing alone, often unable to contain our sadness, the feeling of staying lost forever. Sharing our sorrow helps us feel protected. We feel hopeful.

We were meant to share our lives with each other because life can be full of joy. It can overflow with each new success, rediscovering an old friendship, winning against all odds, carrying life within us. Sharing the abundance of our joy brings us the pleasure of feeling cherished. We have chosen happiness.

We were meant to share our lives with each other because life can catch us unaware. It can suddenly surprise us with unwanted adventures and the dare-devil risk of starting new jobs, falling out of love, questioning our faith. Sharing this crisis gives our loved ones a chance to hold steady a safety net even if we choose not to jump. They stand by, a proud witness to our courage.

We were meant to share our lives with each other, because we need each other. For our lives to sustain its purpose and continue to hold its profound significance, we need to be connected, appreciated and understood. We need to share and we need to belong.

A Story:

A woman came home and saw three old men sitting in her front yard. She did not recognize them but invited them to enter her house to have something to eat. They asked, "Is the man of the house, home?" She said, "No, he is out!" "Then we cannot come in," they replied. When her husband returned, she told him what had happened, and he told her to invite them in. When she invited them, they replied, "We cannot go into the house together." One of the old men explained: "His name is Wealth," he said, pointing to one of his friends, and pointing to the other one, "He is Success." "I am Love."

Prayer for the Sick

Father of goodness and love, hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need. Amid mental and physical suffering may they find consolation in your healing presence. Show your mercy as you close wounds, cure illness, make broken bodies whole and free downcast spirits. We pray for the sick and infirm priests, our brothers and sisters, Marian Ivanda, Elizabeth Walton, Iva Bricek, Harold Chisholm, Barry McDermott, Dick Herring, Eddie Bilek, Margaret Stepler, Lucille Johnston, Ralph Milburn, Marjorie McLaughlin, Milta Rapalo, Ida Brown, Sonja Lawrence, Colleen Mason, Jara Asterova, Ollie Korinetz, Zenaida Nicolas, Doreen Millburn, Helena Glavot, Zeenith Garay, Florence Nichols, Joanne Borrys and all the sick / shut-ins of our Parish whom we may not know by name.

May these special people find lasting health and deliverance, and so join us in thanking you for all your gifts. We ask this through our Lord Jesus who heal those who believe. Amen.

Pray for the Bishops

Your prayers are still requested for Bishop David Monroe of Kamloops and Bishop Gerald Wiesner, OMI of Prince George who are both recovering from injuries. Bishop Wiesner was involved in a recent single vehicle accident.

Stewardship Reflection 4th Sunday of Advent - December 19

"May the Lord come in; he is king of Glory", says the psalmist today. Christmas is less than one week away. With all the hustle and bustle this week will bring, let us in gratitude, and as good stewards of our time, focus on the coming of our King.

"Now go in and discuss with your husband which one of us you want in your home."
The couple had a discussion. The husband wanted to invite Wealth, in order to fill their home with wealth. The wife on the other hand wanted to invite Success. Their daughter heard the commotion, and came to join the discussion. She said that it would be better to invite Love so that their home will be filled with love. Finally the couple agreed to follow the daughter's advice. The wife went out to invite Love as their guest. Love started walking into the house. The other two men also got up and followed him. Surprised, the lady asked Wealth and Success, "I invited Love. Why are you two coming in?" The old men replied together, "If you had invited Wealth or Success, the other two of us would have stayed out, but since you invited Love, wherever he goes, we go with him. Wherever there is Love, there is also Wealth and Success.
Wealth and success will be meaningless without love - God who is love. We need love in our life if we want to live with joy. Wealth and success without love within our family and loved ones will be of little value. What is the use of having wealth and success when there is no one to share it with, especially with our spouse and children.

"He that does good for good's sake seeks neither paradise nor reward, but he is sure of both in the end." God bless, Fr. Rudy

"Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel," which means "God is with us."

An Old English Prayer

GIVE US LORD, a bit of sun,
A bit of work, and a lot fun;
Give us in all the struggle and sputter
Our daily bread and a bit of butter.
Give us health, our keep to make,
And a bit to spare for other's sake.
Give us, too, a bit of song,
And a tale and a book to help us along.
Give us, Lord, a chance to be
Our goodly best, brave, wise and free,
Our goodly best, for our self and others,
Till all men learn to live as brothers.
